

Email Following Pre-Visit Checklist Briefing 22 July 2020

Thanks to everyone who was able to come today's briefing on the new mandatory pre-visit checklist we will be introducing as part of our return to face-to-face work.

You can find the pre-visit checklist and the casenoting procedure on the Guidebook here <https://ascpractice.camden.gov.uk/early-help-guide/family-early-help-covid-guidebook/fscf-procedures-during-covid/face-to-face-visits-guidance-and-procedures/#main>. You will also find a flow chart to follow to help you prepare for visits.

For anyone who wasn't able to come, the briefing was recorded and you can watch/listen to it here <https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/cacdb75b-871d-436b-ac40-da20ed55092e>

Remember the pre-visit checklist must be completed and casenoted before each face-to-face visit, whether in the home, in an alternative venue or an open space.

Our webinars on getting ready for face-to-face work start tomorrow. There are 4 sessions to choose from over the next 2 weeks, so do come along if you would find it helpful to spend some time diving a bit deeper into planning before, during and after a visit, and thinking about ways we can help prevent infection spread.

As always, please do take your time with all this; its new and new things take time to get used to. Your line managers are here to give you lots of support, and you can contact me any time if you have questions.

Thanks again

Becca
