What have the child's main achievements been and what has worked well for them? Is their care plan and placement meeting all of their needs? What needs to change?

Child, family and connected person's views f the child is too young, is not wishing to engage with the review process, or has difficulties with communicating their views directly, then you should add your observations of them and, if possible, also think about what they might want to say if they were able to and what their likely views are.

What are the child's comments on the social worker's assessment and views?
